

International Market of Cut Flowers and Challenges

Friday 30th September 2022

18:00-20:00 (Japan Time)

12:00-14:00 (East African Time)

9:00-11:00 (Ghana Time)

Format: Zoom

Language: English

Participation fee: free

“Open the bloom of your heart and become a gift of beauty to the world”

By Bryant H. McGill

Deadline for registration
29th September 2022

Contact Information

Office for Inter-University Exchange Project

Utsunomiya University

TEL : +81 28-649-5100

MAIL : tenkai@miya.jm.utsunomiya-u.ac.jp

UU-A Web Site TOP

<https://uu-a.utsunomiya-u.ac.jp/en/>

Symposium Page

<https://uu-a.utsunomiya-u.ac.jp/en/symposium/>

Application Form

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSeGcRJv8_1ZL4qK6_S_CnRHdzmca2SISZvCnPurpJ6SQY9sNA/viewform?usp=sf_link

This symposium is a part of Utsunomiya University Inter-University Exchange Project
"Developing Human Resource to Contribute to SDGs by Merging African Potential and Japanese Scientific Technology" funded by Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan.

Programme

Chair: Dr. Takeshi KUROKURA, Lecturer,
School of Agriculture, Utsunomiya University

“World flower market and roles of flowers in human Well-being”

Presenter: Dr. Kenji YAMANE, Professor and Dean of the School of Agriculture, Utsunomiya University

“Agri-social innovation triggered by AFRIKA ROSE ~ the realities of agri-business development linking Africa and Japan ~”

Presenter: Ms. Megumi HAGIUDA, Founder & Director of AFRIKA
ROSE (<https://afrikarose.com/>)

“The rise of Kenya Cut Flower sector and it's tentacles in the global”

Presenter: Dr. Eric MWORIA, Lecturer, Department of Agriculture,
School of Agriculture and Food Science and Consultant
in Agriculture and Food Security,
Meru University of Science and Technology

Discussion

Closing

Dr. Kenji YAMANE

Ms. Megumi HAGIUDA

Dr. Eric MWORIA

Dr. Takeshi KUROKURA

This symposium is a part of Utsunomiya University Inter-University Exchange Project
"Developing Human Resource to Contribute to SDGs by Merging African Potential and Japanese Scientific Technology"
funded by Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan.